

The International Trade Council

INTERNATIONAL TRADE
COUNCIL

As one of the world's largest international trade bodies, the International Trade Council has a strong voice to make issues heard at the highest level. The Council serves the international business community by facilitating networking, arranges business introductions, providing visa support letters and training opportunities aimed at driving sustainable business growth and prosperity. The International Trade Council is the public voice of domestic and international trade related organizations.

How Can the International Trade Council Helps ATIGS 2018 International Participants?

Can the Council Obtain a Visa for ATIGS Participants?

The Council works with a number of expert travel agencies, visa consultants and law firms which can assist in processing visa applications in a timely and professional manner.

The Visa Support Process

To obtain a letter of invitation from the Council you will need to provide the following information in your request:

- Your full name (Family name and given name)
- Degree (M.D., Ph.D, etc.)
- Job Title (Professor, Lab Director, etc.)
- Organization
- Full mailing address
- Name of the event you plan to attend
- Date of event
- Other meetings that you have arranged
- Details of where you will apply for a visa
- Flight details (if known)

Please give us seven (7) days to fulfill your request. In some cases, Visa Offices will not accept electronically transmitted invitation letters. If you also need the Council to mail a letter of invitation, please send an email to us requesting that we mail you a copy of your invitation letter. Include your full name, city, country, and the name of the event you plan to attend. Fees will apply.

Important: Letters of invitation will be sent via regular mail unless you provide a Federal Express or DHL account number.
